City Promised Six More New Buses

Garage To Start By Fall

Firm Spending $300,000

Mansfield Rapid Transit, Inc., had good news today for city bus riders.

Six more new buses are expected to be in service by late summer and a new storage garage probably will be ready by early fall.

Harry J. Brumenshenkel, Mansfield architect, is preparing plans for the new garage. The construction contract will be let to a Mansfield contractor, E. L. Hukill, vice president of Ohio Rapid Transit, said yesterday.

Ohio Rapid Transit is the parent firm of the Mansfield bus company.

The new garage, which will be erected on the site of the old building on East Fourth street, will be 80 by 210 feet, larger than the structure that was destroyed by fire last November.

NEW BUS ARRIVES

Hukill said a new $14,000 bus was to be delivered today. Five 27-passenger buses are expected to be service by Sept. 1. Eight new buses have been placed in service since the bus firm was hit by a $200,000 fire last fall.

The new buses will be used on the Park avenue west, West Fourth street, Hedges, and Fairground lines.

The transit program, including a new garage and buses, will cost about $300,000, Hukill said.

City council granted the company a new 15-year franchise Tuesday night but due to a legal technicality the ordinance was approved last night for the second time.

CHANGES MADE

Re-passing of the ordinance was suggested by City Solicitor C. J. Kalbfleisch to prevent possible legal difficulties.

When the ordinance was presented Tuesday night, several changes were made after the second and third readings had been suspended and the bill was up for final passage. It is illegal to change the ordinance in any manner after the passage of a suspension motion, Kalbfleisch said.

The measure as passed last night contains, as termed by Kalbfleisch, some "extra-legal" sections. Specifically, the franchise stipulates the routes that the buses must follow, including runs to the Ohio State reformatory, the Empire Steel mill and to Trimble road.

According to state statute, council has no authority to make any rules and regulations concerning areas outside the city limits. The three aforementioned points are outside the city limits.

Nevertheless, the extension of service to those three points is of benefit to the riders and, according to a bus company official, the state public utility commission has seen fit to "turn the other way."

Car Plunge Kills Three

COLUMBUS—(AP)—Three West High school students, en route to a breakfast after their senior prom, drowned when their automobile plunged through a guard rail and into the Scioto river at 5:40 a. m. today.

Three other young persons in the car escaped.

The dead, all 17-year-old seniors, were:

Rose (Billie) Lombard, daughter of Fire Department Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph F. Lombard.

Gordon Welker, son of Mrs. Earl F. Welker.

The accident occurred on State Route 257, three miles north of the Columbus zoo.

James Rose, 18, another senior who was driving the car, suffered minor cuts. The state highway patrol said he apparently lost control of the auto.

Highway Patrolman D. F. Roof said the car apparently was traveling at a high rate of speed when it hit the shoulder of the road and began skidding. It apparently skidded on the shoulder 207 feet, then tore down 93 feet of guardrail and ripped out 11 rail posts.

Lewis Told to Bargain

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough today ordered John L. Lewis to bargain with the Southern Coal Producers association, headed by Joseph E. Moody.

Goldsborough granted a court order asked by attorneys representing Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations board.

The judge said it was apparent from the record Lewis did not want to bargain with the Southern association because he wanted to "destroy" it.

He suggested the United Mine Workers chief might desire to bring about the destruction of the Southern association "because it is harder to deal with" as a single unit than with representatives of the 14 smaller associations through the south which make up the association.

"Certainly it's unreasonable in this present case for the union to say 'We're entitled to one representative for 99 units and the Southern Producers association is not entitled to one representative for 14 associations'," he continued.

CALLED UNREASONABLE

"This is not only not logical, but it is not reasonable," the judge said.

New contract talks between coal operators and Lewis broke down May 18 when Lewis refused to consent to Moody sitting at the conference table as the association's representatives.

Goldsborough said:

". . . But when the time comes that any movement — whether labor or not—undertakes to carry out its wishes by methods which ultimately disintegrate society—at that point it must stop."

The soft coal contract expires June 30, allowing less than a month for the operators and Lewis to make a new agreement.

More than one third of the nation's soft coal is produced by the groups making up the Southern association.

Applicants To Get Nod

The Richland County Republican executive committee will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the court house to endorse applicants for a county board of elections post and subdivision manager of the state aid for aged office in Mansfield.

Ralph M. Hardy, executive chairman, who called the meeting, said the committee has received no written applications for either job.

The secretary of state will make the election board appointment and the state welfare director will name the aid for aged manager. Recommendations of the county committee usually are equivalent to appointment.

The GOP election board post was left vacant several days ago by the death of George Williams, Shelby, who held the office 18 years. His term has two years to go.

2nd Recount Ends In Tie

CANTON—(INS)—An election oddity was recorded in Stark county political history today as a second recount of votes in the race between Democrats Joseph du Bar and John R. Hoffman ended in a tie.

In the second retabulation of the county-wide contest, both candidates, seeking nomination for representative to the Ohio General assembly, received 4,755 votes.

The Ohio law provides for the tie to be broken by some form of lot. The candidates have until next Wednesday to determine how they want to decide the winner, otherwise the election board will settle the matter, probably by a flip of a coin.

BLEEDS TO DEATH

CINCINNATI —(AP)— A knife slipped and slashed the right thigh of butcher Martin Tierney yesterday and he bled to death from a severed artery. Tierney was 21.

SMASHED BY CRASHING PLANE—A policeman surveys sheared off end of a house struck by a Navy fighter plane at Brookville, N. Y. Plane was on its second test flight when it apparently developed engine trouble at a low altitude. Craft struck a clump of trees, plummeted through the house and landed upside down. Test Pilot Thomas Le Boutillier jr., 33, polo player and sportsman, suffered a broken arm and cuts about the face and arms. A woman occupant of the house suffered shock and cuts. Navy would not permit pictures of the plane.—(AP Wirephoto)

'Fast Time' Read Again

Council Will Vote On Issue Next Week

The "fast time" ordinance was given a second reading last night after councilmen heard a plea from an industrial worker that standard time be retained.

The issue will come up for a final vote at the next council meeting which probably will be held sometime next week.

John H. Mayer, of the Westinghouse plant told council that a petition with more than 1,400 signatures that was circulated around the plant and delivered to council yesterday was the result of the spontaneous action of the employes.

Explaining the fact that some of the signatures were of persons who live outside of the city and even outside of the county, Mayer said if Mansfield goes on daylight saving time, it will affect not only residents of the city, but all persons who work in the city but live out of town.

He asserted that there was an organized campaign to have council reverse its March 22 decision and put the city on "fast time."

Trustees OK Dr. Flemming

DELAWARE—(AP)—Dr. Arthur S. Flemming is the new president of Ohio Wesleyan university.

Appointment of the 43-year-old member of the U. S. civil service commission was approved formally last night by the board of trustees.

Because of his long association with the government, Dr. Flemming will hold the rank of professor of political science. He will teach an advanced class.

Giant Palomar Telescope In Use

Awed Reporter Peers At Limitless Space

By LYLE ABBOTT

PALOMAR MOUNTAIN OBSERVATORY, Cal.—(INS) Last night I gazed into the spine-chilling and awesome depths of limitless space.

I saw the cosmos pass in review.

I saw universes and galaxies so many billions and billions of miles away that the human mind could not comprehend the tremendous distances.

These wonders were unfolded through the giant telescope that was dedicated at Palomar as the fulfillment of the dream of the world's sky-gazers — the fellows who have devoted their entire lives to the study of the stars.

Here on this 5,600-foot high mountain top, after 20 years of work and the spending of more than six million dollars, astronomers took their first real peek at the heavens through the giant Palomar telescope.

The first object in the deep blue-black sky we saw through the enormous new telescope, was the planet Saturn.

Present were the great men of modern astronomy to "see and to admire."

Dr. Vesto Marion Slipher, director of the Lowell observatory at Flagstaff, Arizona, was there and Dr. Wade Dinsmore Alter of Griffith observatory in Los Angeles.

Dr. Seth Nicholson of Mt. Wilson observatory came. He discovered and recorded more satellites of worlds in the sun's family of planets than any man since Galileo used the first astronomical telescope in 1610.

Nearly 1,000 others came to see the greatest of all telescopes.

Youth Munches Locust Sandwich

MT. VERNON —(CP)— Let's hope it doesn't start a new fad along the goldfish-eating lines. But Kenyon college students were talking today about the intrepid, if unidentified, youth who ate two 17-year locusts the other day to pay off a $6 debt.

The creditor who made the rash proposition stood aghast as the debtor sandwiched the two insects between crackers and downed them.

Cease-Fire Date Denied

CAIRO —(INS)— Count Folke Bernadotte declared today that he has not issued any cease-fire order in Palestine and said that he still is striving to get Arab-Jewish agreement on truce terms.

The United Nations Palestine mediator categorically denied a Reuters' report from Amman, Trans-Jordan capital, that he had issued a cease-fire order to become effective in the Holy Land at 11:00 a. m. Sunday (Palestine time.)

The Reuters report, quoting authoritative sources in Amman, also said that Count Bernadotte had fixed 8:00 p. m. Monday (Palestine time) as the hour for the beginning of the U. N's four-week truce period.

Both reports were termed "absolutely incorrect" by Bernadotte.

Bernadotte, who flew to Cairo from Amman by way of Haifa, indicated that he hopes to be able to announce Arab-Jewish agreement on truce terms in a few days.

Bernadottee called upon Egyptian Premier Mahmoud Nokrashy Pasha immediately after he arrived in Cairo in his personal, heavily-armored white plane.

City Gives County Easement for Roads

City council last night granted to the county an easement on a strip of land at the eastern part of the airport adjacent to the Erie railroad right-of-way which will permit the re-opening of Crall road and its connection with State Route 13 which will be relocated.

Churning Streams Rip Dikes

Snow Forming New Flood

PORTLAND, Ore.—(AP) Unbridled waters churned today through newly punched-out dikes on the Pacific Northwest's far-flung flood front. More strained levees were crumbling. A new crest was rolling down.

The Fraser river in Canada crushed the barriers—at Barnston and Hatzic islands in British Columbia. Some 360 persons raced for their lives ahead of a wall of water 20 feet high that broke through on Barnston. All reached safety.

Reinforcements rushed to soggy dikes along the lower Columbia river's shores in Oregon and Washington as the massive flow of the big river threatened to widen its most destructive 1,200-mile surge to the Pacific.

The fresh flood crest was mounting in the Columbia, far up in the mountains where the blazing sun too quickly changed the deep snowpack into runoff water. The Snake river, main Columbia tributary, also was rising.

The collapse of Barnston and Hatzic dikes last night flooded more fertile farmlands, adding to the tremendous but yet untotaled millions of dollars damage in the Northwest region.

Before the new rampages of the Fraser, estimates from qualified sources soared to $100,000,000 for the Columbia in Idaho and the lower valley in Oregon and $30,000,000 for the Fraser in Washington.

A wall of water 20 feet high roared into Barnston. The saucer-like island, almost three miles long and one and one-half wide, is 20 miles east of Vancouver, B. C.

VESSELS SENT

The Canadian navy at once sent six vessels in an attempt to save the marooned islanders who fled to the opposite side from the break. Most residents had been evacuated earlier when the situation had been considered more critical. The break came, a Canadian army official said, as "quite a surprise."

The break on Hatzic island, 45 miles east of Vancouver, was the largest along the Fraser during the current flood siege—800 feet.

Water swept away the Canadian Pacific railway's double-tracked main line, a pump station and the stationkeeper's house. The town of Dewdney was isolated and about 6,000 acres of land submerged. The British Columbia electric power station at Dewdney was knocked out.

On the lower Columbia, more troops and civilians hurried into danger areas to aid weary workers who have spent days strengthening scores of weakening dikes against the river's savage onslaught.

Light Rain In Sight

There's a chance that cooler weather Saturday will bring light showers to brighten thirsty farm and garden crops, the weatherman said today.

The outlook for rain isn't too promising, although some showers may develop when cooler air under-runs the warm air, said Weatherman C. G. Andrus of Cleveland.

He said that the changeover should occur sometime between tomorrow afternoon and early Sunday, with the mercury taking a 10-degree drop from the present high range of between 70 and 90 degrees.

The mercury reached 81 yesterday in Mansfield and dropped to 54 last night. It was 81 at noon today.

The weather bureau's five-day outlook for Ohio follows:

Temperatures will average about three degrees above normal during the period. Cooler over the week end, becoming warmer during the first of the week. Showers over the week end, with total amount about three-tenths of an inch.

Church Bids Accepted To June 10

Congregation Asks Construction Offers

Bids on construction of a new First Congregational church will be received until June 10, H. B. Soulen, chairman of the church building committee, said today.

The church, to be erected at the corner of Marion avenue and Millsboro road, was originally planned to include four integrated parts—sanctuary, a social or educational building, a chapel and Sunday school rooms.

Original estimate of the cost of the church was $300,000, but whether the congregation will be able to carry through the entire building program at present materials and labor costs, will have to be decided when bids are received, Soulen said, today.

Following the June 10 bid deadline, the bids will be analyzed by the building committee and submitted to the congregation for further study and a decision.

Final plans, with required changes, are still in the hands of the W. H. Thomas firm of architects, Philadelphia. They are expected to be received here within the next two weeks.

The church congregation has been without a building of its own since the old structure on Park avenue west was destroyed by fire in 1944.

Firm Stand Keeps Them From Sitting

LIMA (INS) A standing vote is virtually assured at the Lima council meeting next Monday night.

All the city office equipment and furniture has been moved to a newly-acquired building, but the council can't vote to move itself.

The move requires six affirmative votes from the seven-man council and its president, Clyde Welty, in a huff over the transaction which took place in his absence, has voted negative. Another councilman, Robert Wilson, is ill.

Which leaves the five remaining members standing around with their hands in their pockets.

Fire Damages Galion Store

GALION—Fire broke out at 11:15 a. m. today in the Johnston Better Homes store at 217 South Market street and was still being fought by the fire department at noon.

The flames were confined to a cement building behind the store and loss was estimated at several thousand dollars. The interior of the store and the apartment upstairs were smoke-damaged.

CRESTLINE—Tanned and smiling, President Harry S. Truman stepped to the rear platform of his 16-car presidential special as it pulled into Crestline at precisely 10:53 a. m. today.

He waved to a crowd of approximately 2,000 persons who gave him several rounds of applause.

Former Gov. Frank J. Lausche boarded the train, and he and the President shook hands and smiled for some two dozen photographers.

The President then stepped to the microphone and said "he was pleased to see the crowd which was the largest that had greeted him so far on the trip."

'TOP OF OHIO'

He said it was a pleasure to be in Crestline, which he called the "top of Ohio."

"You know," he said, "being president is just about like being in jail, you go from the office to the study and back again and there are always secret service men around.

"I am grateful to have Frank Lausche here, and I understand that he will be the next governor of Ohio," the President said.

"This is a non-partisan and bi-partisan trip, but I understand there are some Democrats along too," Mr. Truman added, as the crowd laughed at his last remark.

Lausche then talked to the crowd briefly, and said he was

To Receive Diploma In Hospital

Plane Victim Graduates Cum Laude

Miriam Pugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Pugh, Mansfield R. D. 2, will be graduated cum laude from Kent State university June 12 in spite of the fact that she is confined to St. Thomas hospital in Akron with injuries suffered in an airplane crash.

Miss Pugh was injured when the plane in which she was riding crashed in a freak wind east of Kent State university May 21. The plane was piloted by Richard Johnson, a first quarter senior, who is also a patient at the hospital.

Damaged vertebrae and a fractured ankle will keep Miss Pugh confined to the hospital for several months. She has been placed in a special bed where she is clamped down and will have to lie perfectly still until the injured vertebrae are healed. Her face and hands also were injured in the crash but not seriously.

Miss Pugh and Johnson were injured the day of the junior-senior prom at Canton. Miss Pugh had been assigned to march with Cardinal Key, honor society, in Campus Day activities on Saturday, May 22. Miss Pugh called her "date" for the prom, James Brown, from her hospital bed to tell him of the accident.

Besides being a member of Cardinal Key, Miss Pugh is secretary of Engleman hall, a scholarship student and prominent in University debate circles.

Announcement that Miss Pugh would graduate with honors was made by John Reed Spicer, dean of the college of liberal arts in which the Mansfield student is enrolled.

54 Divorce Suits Filed During May

Actions Nearly Triple All Other Types

Divorce petitions in Richland county common pleas court last month nearly tripled all other actions filed in the court.

There were 54 divorce petitions as compared with 20 other suits.

In April, 39 divorce petitions and one action for allmony were filed. During the same month, 21 civil actions were started.

Clerk of courts records also show that 159 new cars and 45 new trucks were transferred in May compared to 221 new cars in April and 57 new trucks.

Total transfers in May of cars and trucks, including new ones, were 1,744, in contrast to 2,105 in April.

Clerk of Courts Howard Wenning said March and April are the busiest months because car licenses are issued at that time, and because more people buy and sell cars during the spring.

House Speeds Action on Foreign Aid Appropriation Bill

GOP Chiefs Pushing for Final Vote

Dems Attempting To Restore Cut

WASHINGTON —(INS)— House GOP Leader Halleck of Indiana today predicted approval of the six billion dollar foreign aid bill, perhaps by nightfall, without any further reduction in funds.

The House met at 9 a. m. (EST) two hours earlier than usual, in the hope of completing action by tonight. The measure, which was approved Thursday by the appropriations committee, would then go to the Senate.

House Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas said that "our main fight" will be to shorten to 12 months the period for which the funds were appropriated.

The appropriations committee provided that the money should be expended over a 15-month period ending June 30, 1949, instead of April 3, 1949, as had been authorized previously by Congress.

Rep. Taber (R-NY), committee chairman, estimated that "we saved $1,044,000,000 on the cost of the European recovery program by stretching the funds over a 15-month period.

The administration originally requested $6,800,000,000 for a 15-month period.

The appropriations committee returned to the original 15-month program, but it did not increase the appropriation. Instead it cut the amount $245,000,000, representing a reduction in the administration's original Marshall plan program of $1,765,000,000.

The committee allotted $5,980,710,228 for the 15-month period beginning last April 3. It included the following: European recovery program for 17 western European nations, four billion, with another billion to be furnished by the U. S. Export-Import bank; China, 400 million; Greece and Turkey, 200 million; military government and relief in occupied areas, one billion 250 million; international refugee organization, $70,710,228; International children's emergency fund, sixty million.

City Starts Street Oiling

The street department today began its annual dust abatement program of oiling 11 unpaved streets, E W. Davis, street superintendent, said.

Davis's department has been receiving numerous calls from persons asking that the streets be oiled to prevent the dust from soiling clean wash and getting into their homes.

He explained, however, that he was forced to wait until the weather was sufficiently dry before he could start operations.

Streets that were to be oiled today were Longview avenue, Trimble road, Surry road, Hemlock avenut, Paxfod place, South Linden road, West Arlington avenue, Oakenwaldt avenue north end of Central avenue and Marshall avenue.

'Y' Cleared Of Red Tinge

COLUMBUS —(INS)— The Ohio State university branch of the YMCA stood cleared of charges of communist activity today.

The Columbus and Franklin county Community Chest finished a six-weeks investigation yesterday and announced that the "Y" neither harbors nor promotes communism.

The University YMCA receives contributions from the Community Chest.

Boys to Visit Industrial Plants

Members of the Mansfield YMCA Summer Fun club will visit the Mansfield Tire and Rubber company plant Wednesday on the first of a series of "Rubber Neck" trips through area industrial plants.

Boys between 9 and 15 will meet at the Mansfield YMCA at 9 a. m. Wednesday morning to leave by city bus for the tire plant.

Truck Blazes

Firemen answered a call to the Mansfield Ashphalt Paving company at 9.24 a. m. today, when fire in a Standard Oil company truck loaded with asphale was extinguished with no damage to the truck.

2,000 Cheer President

glad to welcome the President to Ohio.

The Presidential train pulled out at 11 a. m.

BOY INJURED

A few seconds after the train disappeared, a freight train came in on the New York Central tracks from the south, a 12-year-old boy riding a bicycle along the crowded platform, was thrown from his bicycle when one of the freight cars hit his front wheel.

He received cuts and bruises on his right leg, and possibly a wrenched ankle. The boy was Donald Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Long, Crestline.

Only humorous sidelight of the arrival of the Presidential train in Crestline was that observers noted that the central car of the train was named 'The Andrew W. Mellon." Mellon was secretary of the treasury under Republican president Herbert Hoover.

The chief executive was on the observation platform as the train passed through Mansfield at 10:33 a. m. He waved to crowds gathered at grade crossings and to about 150 people on the Pennsylvania station platform.

Observers said another person, assumed to have been a federal agent, stood beside Mr. Truman on the platform.

Pennsylvania railroad officials reported the special was 'right on time." It passed through here at about 35 miles per hour, they said.

City police were on hand at grade crossings within the city as the special passed through while state highway patrolmen and sheriff's deputies guarded other crossings in the county.

HEADS FOR INDIANA

After leaving Crestline the Presidential Special headed for Fort Wayne, Ind., where at 1:20 p. m. Mr Truman is scheduled to make the first of a series of 10-minute off-the-cuff talks from the rear platform

The train is due in Chicago at 4:30 p. m. There, Mr. Truman will have dinner at the Palmer House with Mayor Martin Kennelly, former Mayor Edward J. Kelly and Jacob M. Arvey, chairman of the Cook county (Illinois) Democratic Central committee, who has advocated Mr. Truman's withdrawal from the presidential race.

At 9 p. m. the President delivers his first formal address at the Chicago stadium. He boards the train again at 10:45 p. m. for Omaha.

Given a send-off at Washington's Union Station by several cabinet members, including Secretary of State Marshall, Mr. Truman left the capita l at 10:05 last night. This morning he worked with his staff on the speech he will make at Seattle, Wash., outlining new proposals for a big nationwide development of watersheds to prevent future devastation such as has hit the Columbia river valley. He will speak at Seattle June 10.

As he started his two-week tour last night, the President told reporters: "If I felt and better, I couldn't stand it."

'Y' Century Cycle Club Plans Summer State Tours

Area boys 12 years of age and older are joining the "Y" Century Cycle club as part of the YMCA Summer Fun program, Maurice W. Taylor, general secretary of the Mansfield YMCA, announced today.

"Bicycle trips throughout the state to points of interest will be conducted under the supervision of the 'Y' adult staff members," Taylor said.

Features of the club program will be swimming, casting instruction, boating, fishing, overnight camp outings, photography contests and sports.

Club requirements are instruction in traffic ordinances and rules of safe riding and a mechanical inspection to determine the condition of each boy's bicycle in meeting the basic safety rules.

"Y" Century Cycle club emblems will be awarded to the boys who meet the club requirements and travel 100 miles on "Y" cycle trips.

Taylor said application forms may be obtained at the Mansfield YMCA.

Two Murder Suspects Held

HAMILTON —(AP)— Prosecutor Paul Braden planned to file murder charges today against Cyril Gordon, 26-year-old farmhand, and Mrs. Marie Conn Abbott, 40, widow of slain Marris R. Abbott, Reily township farmer.

Braden and Butler county Sheriff Charles Walke said Gordon, arrested as a suspect shortly after Abbott's body was found, had signed a statement admitting hitting Abbott with a mattock after an argument about Abbot's wife.

Braden ordered Mrs. Abbott taken into custody yesterday after Gordon made an oral statement admitting the slaying.

Taft Wrong, Says Bowles

CLEVELAND —(AP)— Former Federal Price Administrator Chester Bowles says Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) should "eat his words" regardin' the effect of lifting price controls.

Bowles told a group of Americans for Democratic Action last night that back in 1946 he had predicted prices would rise from 25 to 30 per cent if controls were abolished.

Sen. Taft," he added, said my prediction was ridiculous, that he had never heard anything more absurd, that I would have to eat my words.' "

Bowles said prices are 27 per cent higher "than they were when Sen. Taft and his associates killed price controls in the stated belief that 'natural economic forces' would bring prices down."

Wage Talks Will Reopen June 12

PITTSBURGH —(AP)— Westinghouse Electric corporation and the CIO-United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers will resume wage talks here June 8, the company announced. Negotiations will involve salaries of about 75,000 workers.

The original parleys were broken off April 22 when the company announced it was opposed to "a third round of wage increases." The union asks a "substantial wage increase."

Kiwanis Club Hears Warning Against Communism In U. S.

A warning against permitting communism to infiltrate further into Americanism was given to members of the Kiwanis club at their noon luncheon meeting Thursday by Guy Moorse Bingham, former Chautauqua and Lyceum course speaker

"We are passing through the critical era of American living," Bingham said.

"Russia has been our enemy for 30 years and its form of government by communism is like termites at the base of a tree destroying the foundation of our democracy," he said

"Communists are not strong in number in this country," he said, but they are strong in tactics They have infiltrated into our labor organizations, our state department in Washington and in the war department in the capital.

Russia is building today, rapidly an air force and an army You as a civic organization and all other American organizations should begin to fight their progress We must have a strong air force and military strength and not let what happened after War I occur again

Harold Osmund served as program chairman. Kiwanis president A. G. Earnshaw presided at the meeting in the Mansfield-Leland hotel.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

PAGE SIX — MANSFIELD, OHIO, FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1948

The long search has ended. Joe Palooka has finally found Ann Howe—but what a complicated situation exists at the moment. Of course you'll turn to the comic page as soon as you have read everything on this page.

Someone inquires: "Remember the good old days when you used to go to the grocery store with a pocketful of money and return home with a sack of groceries? Now you go with a sack of money and return with a pocketful of groceries."

New Health Commissioner Coming

COUPLED with announcement of a new city-county health commissioner, scheduled to take over early in July, it is heartening to note the statement by James F. Carrigan, health board chairman, that the new commissioner "is going to run the health department as he thinks it should be run and without outside interference."

This, if it can be depended upon, should serve to remove some of the obstacles to efficient health department functioning which have been apparent during the past several years—notably during the administration of Dr. Fred O. Tonney, most recent occupant of the commissioner's post.

Dr. Harry Wain, who has accepted an offer of $8,000 a year to become health commissioner here, has a record of experience which should fit him for the position and many will join in his expressed hope "to be able to do a fine job and give Mansfield an outstanding health department."

It seems noteworthy in this connection that a substantial raise in salary was required to secure a presumably capable man for this important post, and it may be wondered if readjustment of ideas of a suitable salary for some other public positions of high responsibility will soon be necessary to attract persons qualified to fill various elective and appointive offices.

One Veteran's 'Housing Problem'

HE FOUGHT in the Pacific. He was among a group of men considered "expendable." And he spent long years in a Jap prison camp. He was lucky to come out alive. He expected to be beaten by the Japs. He was not surprised to have his skull battered with a club. But he couldn't very well anticipate what has happened to him since he got home.

He married a very nice girl and they now have a ten-months-old baby. The world looked pretty decent again—until they tried to find a home of their own. Both his parents and hers are supposed to have what is known as "influence" so you wouldn't think they'd have any trouble renting a few rooms somewhere. In fact several people seemed eager to help them—until they learned there was a baby. Then the prospective landlords hedged and backed out.

The veteran is not bitter. He is just a little dazed that men should have fought to save a way of life in which children are not wanted.

He and his wife and child have a place to live. It is not a home of their own, but they'll get by. The landlords who refused them a dwelling will probably get by, too; but they must wince a little bit when a baby smiles innocently at them on the street. And when they have headaches they may think about this veteran being beaten on the skull by a Jap.

The rest of us in the community, of course, are not concerned in the matter. The war's over now. Everyone's having housing troubles.

But it's a damnable reflection on all of us.

Long-Term Service of Governors

GOV. SIDNEY P. OSBORN of Arizona, who died last week of the rare and incurable disease that killed Lou Gehrig, famous ballplayer, was an example of the Arizona fondness for re-electing governors. Osborn was serving his fourth term, and at that did not hold the state record. That went to George W. P. Hunt, elected as the state's first governor and chosen for seven terms altogether, besides being defeated for two more. From 1911 to 1934, when Hunt died, he dominated the state's politics. The period since then could fairly be called the Osborn era.

In the early days of the nation governors often served for long periods. George Clinton's 21 years in New York have never been equaled. Terms of 10 years and more were especially common in New England.

Nowadays the job is harder and the competition more severe. Herbert H. Lehman of New York had four terms, three of two years, one of four, making 10 years altogether. But the modern record-holder was Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, strongly supported for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1932. He held office for 15 years until 1934, when he was defeated for a fifth term of four years. Except for that unexpected upset, he might have passed Clinton's mark, not equaled in well over a century.

When Dictators Gain Control

ONE of the most terrible effects of a totalitarian government is that it destroys the power of the people to change the government. If any of the Czechs were in doubt about that fact before their recent election, they should know now how the totalitarian system works.

It was an election between two sides—the government side and NO side. An elector could vote for the government ticket, or he could cast a blank ballot, if he dared. He went to the polls knowing that if he protested against the government by use of the blank ballot, local officials would know that he had done so.

The stifling of opposition is a deadly thing. It is resorted to only by those who know that they could not long remain in power if opposition were possible.

Now comes word of an anti-communist in Hungary who resigned because of good health—which he undoubtedly wishes to retain.

What Some Other People Are Saying

Army Chief of Staff GEN. BRADLEY: "If the structure of our armed forces is to be shaped by every shift of the wind, to be tempered and softened from day to day, we shall have nothing but a uniformed weather vane. Certainly, we shall not have an effective deterrent to war."

* * *

POPE PIUS XII, in an appeal for global peace: "We do not doubt that all our faithful realize their place is always beside those generous individuals who are preparing mutual understanding . . and the establishment of peace among nations."

* * *

SEN. GURNEY (R) S.D., chairman of the armed services committee, commenting on the proposed induction law: "This is a serious matter. And I think any delay in getting the men we need is serious. We should get the draft boards and machinery set up immediately."

Radio Interests Being Juggled By Lamb

A NEW TWIST has appeared in the Alice In Wonderland story of Edward Lamb and the Federal Communications Commission.

Lamb is the red-tinged Toledo lawyer who procured five radio broadcasting licenses within two weeks in an unprecedented burst of generosity by the FCC. He is the same Toledoan accused in Congress as a "man saturated and drenched in communist writings, associations and affiliations." He is the same Edward Lamb who holds an FM radio broadcasting license for Mansfield; the same man Congressman F. Edward Hebert charges has "one of the most expansive records of associations with the Communist party in America, front organizations and fellow travelers" of anyone to come to the attention of the House un-American activities committee.

* * *

LAMB'S latest radio deal is the sale of a corporation he formed and controlled and through which he had sought to obtain television rights in Youngstown.

Besides selling his interest in Youngstown, Lamb also stepped out as secretary of another of his corporations, "Heart of Ohio, Inc.," which is an applicant before the FCC for another Columbus broadcasting license. The pending license is for AM or standard broadcasting. He already has a television license for Columbus. Although relinquishing his office in the corporation, the Toledo lawyer retained, with his wife and law partner, control of the firm's stock.

Further, Lamb announces that he is pulling out of Springfield, where he was granted another radio station license.

What does it all mean?

Lamb said he is abandoning his Springfield and Youngstown interests in order to devote more time to interests in Toledo, Columbus and Erie, Pa. He made no mention of his intentions in Mansfield.

If his statement about concentrating his interest in other cities is true, why did Lamb go to all the trouble and expense of organizing, financing and operating a half-dozen corporations? What does he really have in mind for the broadcasting licenses which he seemed to have gained with such ease, despite his leftist leanings, red sympathies and communist associations?

* * *

DOES his action at Youngstown indicate that through his uncanny ability to get cooperation from the FCC, Lamb is going into business as a wholesaler of radio stations or companies? Could it be that he seeks to become the vendor of tickets for riding his "inside track" to get radio broadcasting licenses from the FCC? Has the control of radio in the U.S. swerved so far left that legitimate businessmen may soon find that it is only through such questionable characters as Lamb that radio licenses will be available?

Or do these things mean that Lamb, once more following the familiar communist pattern, is going "underground" to operate his radio enterprises from behind the scenes? His relinquishing of office in the "Heart of Ohio" corporation, while still retaining majority stock control, might well give rise to speculation on underground tactics.

It is inconceivable that Lamb and the FCC will be allowed to go forward with any such operations, inasmuch as a part of the story now has been forceably placed before Congress. It is high time that some more responsible division of government should take a hand.

Adult Delinquency Cited

By THOMAS L. STOKES

WASHINGTON—A group of us saw here the other day the preview of a motion picture—"Report For Action"—which shows how to organize a local community to check juvenile delinquency. It is being contributed by the theater owners of America to the National Conference on Prevention and Control of Juvenile Delinquency with which the theater owners are cooperating.

You will see it soon at your theater. It is part of a campaign by the national conference to stimulate state and community conferences which was inaugurated in January by President Truman by a proclamation. G. Howland Shaw, former assistant secretary of state, is chairman of the nations conference and Attorney General Tom Clark is honorary chairman. The conference is supported by private contributions.

It is a fine movement that deserves the support of every community. The film is very helpful in showing how to organize a community.

While watching it, the thought came that there should also be another movement—a national conference on adult delinquency.

In the picture you will see slums which nourish juvenile delinquency and crime. This is something that the national conference on adult delinquency might take up. For it is adults here in congress, specifically in the House of Representatives, who are blocking the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill, passed by the Senate, that provides means of eradicating slums.

Those who are blocking it are very adult. There is Speaker of the House Joseph W. Martin (Mass.), who is 63. There is Rep. Charles A. Halleck (Ind.) Republican floor leader, who is 48. They are the king pins of the House Republican leadership which is holding up this bill. A nod from them would bring it to the house floor for a vote.

Then there is Rep. Jesse P. Wolcott (Mich.), 54, who is chairman of the banking and currency committee which has charge of the measure. The long-drawn-out hearings on the bill are having the effect of a filibuster that prevents action by the committee which, it is now reported, would approve it by a 14 to 13 vote—if it could be brought to a vote.

Speaker Martin has ambitions to be your next president of the United States. He is what is called a "dark horse" candidate and chances for a compromise on one of a number of such "dark horses" has increased with the prospects of a deadlock at the Philadelphia convention this month. Rep. Halleck would like to be the vice presidential candidate of his party.

* * *

Shows Other Needs.

THE FILM—"Report For Action"—also reveals the need of better educational facilities for our youngsters, not only for good basic education and training which contributes to good citizenship, but also to keep busy young minds occupied.

It also shows the need of better playground and recreational facilities at schools for the same purpose. Some communities where income is low and tax yields are small can not provide these things.

A bill that would furnish federal assistance for education to such communities, also sponsored by Senator Taft (R., O.) and which also has passed the Senate, is being held up in the House.

The Republican leadership could do something about that.

It could do something also about another bill, likewise sponsored by Senator Taft which likewise has passed the Senate, which would provide greater health facilities.

The need of those in the campaign against juvenile delinquency is also shown in the film.

In the film also you see many children, at school, at play. Among such children are some who lost their fathers in the war, and some whose fathers are disabled. A national conference on adult delinquency could also turn in its mind to ways to stop wars. There is no record in history of a war started by children. Adults start them. Children grow up into young men to fight them.

Washington Calling

Possible, Not Probable

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower sat in on a conference the other day at which he heard his own prospects for the Democratic nomination for president candidly discussed. During the conference the new head of Columbia University maintained a sphinx-like silence.

Leader of the discussion was a veteran of the political wars whose prognostications are usually proved accurate. He made the flat prediction that Eisenhower would not be drafted, since President Truman would be renominated on the first ballot at Philadelphia.

The analysis of this political veteran went as follows:

Alabama comes first on the roll call of the states, and on the first ballot Alabama will put General Eisenhower's name in nomination. Next comes Arizona, with the possibility that some votes in that delegation would go to the general. Third in line comes Arkansas, and the votes of the Arkansas delegation will in all probability be cast for Eisenhower.

But then, as this analysis goes, party regularity will begin to assert itself, and when the last state and the last territory have cast their votes, Mr. Truman will be the nominee of his party to run for a full term in the White House.

In talking with friends later, General Eisenhower seemed inclined to accept this diagnosis with something of a sense of relief. If it happens that way, Columbia's new president will be spared a great deal of anxiety.

There is a possibility, however, that the outcome of that first ballot might be quite different. The state that comes after Arkansas in the roll call is California. Party regularity and party loyalty to Mr. Truman will be practically nil in that big, excitable delegation.

* * *

Anything Can Happen.

NEXT comes Colorado, and those who know the West say that an Eisenhower upsurge among the California delegates would produce a similar response among the representatives from Colorado. Thus, like a prairie fire, the revolution might sweep through the hall beyond the power of party regulars to check it.

So the possibility cannot be entirely ruled out, and therefore Eisenhower remains one of the key figures in the political scene. It is a striking commentary that the two men who have protested most earnestly that they are not candidates are in the forefront today. The other man, it is hardly necessary to add, is Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, who is rated by many as the No. 1 Republican choice.

Between Eisenhower and Vandenberg there is mutual respect and admiration.

Although Eisenhower has not yet actively taken over the direction of the sprawling university on New York's Morningside heights, it is believed that he had something to do with the fact that Columbia tapped Vandenberg for an honorary degree.

The general thinks the senator would make a good president of the United States. Should Vandenberg be the choice of the Republicans, who meet first, it is conceivable that Eisenhower would publicly endorse him during the interval or a week or ten days before the Democrats convene. Thus, rebellious Democrats might have their dreams of an Eisenhower stampede at the convention shattered even before Chairman Sam Rayburn's gavel falls for the first time.

General Eisenhower has never entirely closed the door on his nomination. He is getting hundreds of letters from veterans these days complaining that if they could be drafted, then so can he. These make a deep impression on the soldier and patriot who is deeply aware of the troubled times in which we are living.

Kelly Shifts Truman's Chicago Arrival

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Chicago Democrats have bailed President Truman out of a near blunder on his visit to Chicago tomorrow.

The White House staff had planned to bring the President into Chicago at 3:30 p. m.—a time when the streets are not crowded.

However, ex-Mayor Ed Kelly, a past master at parades, reminded the White House that 4:30 was the time to arrive in Chicago. At that hour, people are on their way home and the President will appear to have a crowd watching his arrival—even if it's only a lot of folks on their way to catch trains and buses.

Housing Still Bottled Up.

NINETY more congressmen are needed to sign the petition to get the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill out of the banking and currency committee where it is now bottled up.

A few Southern Democrats have already signed in favor of housing—but only a few. However, southern leaders indicate that pressure from the voters at home is strong and that southern congressmen will begin signing up en masse soon. They are beginning to realize that adequate housing is one of the best ways to lick communism.

If the South signs, it will take about 25 to 30 eastern and western congressmen to force the important housing bill onto the floor for a vote before Congress recesses.

Able California Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas is spearheading the housing drive. If the drive fails within the next week there will be no chance of any housing bill passing Congress until next year.

* * *

American Citizens Desert.

A total of four American citizens in Moscow have now either deserted to the Russians or denounced American policy toward Russia. On top of this the son of Meyer Davis, wealthy bandleader, has renounced his American citizenship in Paris in protest against U. S. policy.

The above were young Americans.

All of which would indicate that in the eyes of part of our younger generation there is either something wrong with our current Russian policy or else that that policy has not been properly sold either at home or abroad.

All the facts in the case of Sergeant James McMillin, who deserted the American embassy with the top secret code of the United States, have not been told.

Actually this incident was just as severe a blow to us as the desertion of Soviet code clerk Igor Gouzenko in Canada was to Russia.

McMillin was the son of a West Point graduate and a colonel in the regular Army. With the secret code he gave the Russians, the Kremlin is now able to read the following highly important messages regarding U. S. plans for the defense of Europe:

1. Conversations with Franco Spain by which the American Army is to dig in behind the Pyrennes in case of war with Russia.

2. Conversations with France for defense of the Rhine in case of war with Russia.

3. Conversation with Iran for U. S. support of the Iranian Army in case of Soviet invasion.

* * *

Russia Has Our Secrets.

THESE and other highly confidential messages were sent to Ambassador Bedell Smith in Moscow. Just why military messages were sent to the American ambassador in Moscow is not known. It is understandable that Smith should have received all reports from the bureau of fisheries, but sending military messages to Moscow, even in code, was risky.

Today these are no longer secret. The Russians have them, can publish them whenever they please, just as Canada published the information unearthed from the confessions of code-clerk Gouzenko.

While it was partly Sgt. McMillin's infatuation with Russian glamour-girl Galina Dunaeva Biconish that lured him from his own country, friends believe it was also the military nature of the messages he was decoding which helped influence him.

All this, plus the daughter of the commerce department assistant now working for the Soviet Tass news agency, plus the large and youthful following of Henry Wallace make it appear that the United States is losing part of the cold war with some of its own younger generation.

And while this columnist is convinced we are basically right in maintaining a firm policy and a big air force against Russia, yet we have made the mistake of offering no alternative to the mailed fist.

If, however, we kept the mailed fist in one hand and held an olive branch—friendship with the Russian people—in the other hand, we might be on firmer psychological ground both at home and abroad.

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

"Buy a color to match your suit, dear. . .You know how your pen leaks!"

Dave Boone Says:

A NEW YORK policeman, John Parsons, was ordained a preacher the other day to the words "Take thou authority to read Holy Scriptures in the church of God and read the word." He will end 20 years service on the force next year and has been studying for religious orders for the last six years.

* * *

Well, a policeman these days is a fellow who has had to be a rugged, well-balanced, heroic individual, with his life ever in danger. He certainly wouldn't pull any punches because it made the congregation uneasy.

* * *

I'm for a return to the old-fashioned, straight-from-the-shoulder sermon that made folks sit up and think. A man who has walked his beat 20 years and had the zeal to study on the side for the church might be the man to deliver it and not mind the shuffling of feet.

* * *

At any rate, those fits of coughing that break out so early in the sermons nowadays wouldn't slow him up.

Farmer's Diary

Rare Poultry Food

By CALVIN A. BYERS

MENTIONED in "Pay Dirt," by J. I. Rodale, and elsewhere, is a method of poultry feeding based upon the well known idea that birds thrive upon insect larvae.

The "blue-bottle" or blow fly is familiar to us all. These big flies lay their eggs in decaying flesh, and their maggots thrive upon and destroy dead animal matter. When the worm is full-grown it buries itself in the earth and emerges again from the pupa stage in another generation of flies. Fortunately many of the maggots are destroyed or eaten by birds before they can lose themselves in the earth and so do not reproduce. But they serve a very real purpose in Nature's plan of disposing of dead wastes.

Adopting this knowledge of the bluebottle fly to the poultryman's needs, a rack is hung in the poultry house, on which is laid any piece of meat, or accidentally killed farm animal that would attract blow flies.

When the maggots do their worst and became full grown, they will drop by a thread to the earth. Underneath the rack, a flat tray or clean board is placed, within reach of the hens and they soon learn to watch and gobble up greedily any fat maggot that drops.

Even in dead of winter the plan seems to work, for there always seem to be enough bluebottle flies around to find any unfrozen spoiled meat. And the hens thrive wonderfully upon the wormy diet. It serves to balance their rations.

When the worms have eaten all they will of the spoiled meat or the dead carcass—any kind of dead animal will do—the remains can be moved with a fork to the compost heap. Thus nothing is lost—no bluebottle flies are allowed to reproduce, and verybody is the gainer.

Friends of mine who have tried this plan say it yields excellent results. They were astounded, though, when their pup drove the hens away, and sat down to eagerly watch for each plump juicy maggot that fell upon the clean tray in the hen coop.

Furthermore, even the odor is much less, they say, than might be supposed. And the plan offers a way to safely and profitably dispose of much food and farm waste that might otherwise be lost.

MISSIONARIES PRESENT TALK TO CHURCH GROUPS

Dr. and Mrs. George Hollister of China Are Guests of Methodist Woman's Societies.

DR. AND MRS. GEORGE HOLLISTER of China were the guest speakers last evening at the meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church. The missionaries, who were sent to the United States as delegates to the General Conference, told of their country and the Chinese people and gave an informative talk of the hunger for Christianity in China.

One hundred and 30 were in attendance, including members of the Woman's Society of the Central Methodist Church.

Continuing the program were the vocal numbers given by David Drumm and Miss Beverly Wentz. Mr. Drumm was accompanied by Mrs. W. L. Haas. Miss Wentz favored with three selections.

Mrs. H. G. Handley was program chairman and Mrs. John Green introduced the guest speakers. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Clarence Lisle and Mrs. Charles Stoneburner.

The Woman's Society of Central Methodist Church met Thursday afternoon at the church for a luncheon with Mrs. R. C. Brown and members of Circle Six as hostesses. The luncheon was opened with the singing of the hymn, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee," conducted by Mrs. George Ganyard. Four guests, Mrs. George Blaney, Mrs. H. J. Rex, Mrs. Rita Bonar and Mrs. Christman, were present.

The devotions, "I Am My Brother's Keeper," were led by Mrs. J. C. Stout. They were taken from "For Whom the Bells Toll." Mrs. Paul Frye gave the topic for the afternoon.

Take Special Care of Your Own Piano

By ELEANOR ROSS

PIANO manufacturers are still way behind on their current orders, we are told. So we are doing everything to keep our handsome piano in as good condition as possible.

Piano tuners, numerically speaking, are getting scarcer every day. It seems that very few men want to take up this type of work. So it is best not to rely on securing a piano tuner just when it seems that the piano does need professional care, but to place a standing order for a tuner once or twice a year, at a specified month.

The tone of a piano determines its worth as a musical instrument, but whether or not it is an ornament to a room, depends upon the condition of its case. So, with its "innards" looked after it becomes a pleasant duty to keep the exterior looking as nice as possible.

Scratches and a dingy film caused by the mixture of furniture oil and dust will mar the beauty of the finest wood. A costly refinishing job may be prevented if the piano case is given an annual wash-down procedure which costs but a few cents and is really very little trouble.

The entire case should be gone over, taking a few square feet at a time, with a soft, clean cloth wrung out of warm, but not hot sudsy water. Repeat with another soft cloth wrung out of clear warm water, then carefully wipe dry, using spotlessly clean cloths.

Restore gloss by applying furniture wax or furniture polish. If there are scratches, treat them before applying polish.

Small scars often can be made virtually invisible by rubbing a broken nutmeat over the spot. If the mark is really bad, it is best to have it professionally treated.

This week end why not plan on serving a meal that will please the family and still be simple enough to prepare with only a short time in the kitchen? A daisy is the basis for just such a meal. Here it is served with broccoli and a side dish of rhubarb sauce. On the rest of the table you'd find a molded carrot and pineapple salad (prepared the day before in a large mold) and baked potatoes whose skins have been split in a cross and the fluffy white inside pinched to a mound on the top. They are decorated with a pat of butter or margarine and some paprika. Waiting in the kitchen are crushed strawberries to be used as an ice cream topping for dessert. The best way of cooking the daisy is to simmer it in water to cover for 45 to 50 minutes per pound and then glaze it with a ham glaze, such as orange marmalade or brown sugar and honey, in a hot oven (400°F.) for fifteen minutes just before the meal is served.

Keep the ivory keys nice by wiping them with a soft cloth lightly moistened with milk or with denatured alcohol.

Horoscope

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Saturday, June 5.

IT may seem difficult, perhaps almost futile, to keep the energies and initiative on a firm and enduring foundation, in the face of difficulties, complications, delays and congestions. Want of cooperation, disappointments, postponements and discouragement may instill a desire to "throw in the sponge." A week-end of relaxation, diversion and attention to rebuilding incentives and gain a sounder vision, could be advantageous.

For the Birthday.

Those whose birthday it is, should take themselves in hand and school themselves in rebuilding their vision, energies and initiative if confronted by a static, congested or gnarled state of affairs, discouraging and depleting. It might be wise to change such vibrations of depression, defeatism, limitation, frustration and hopelessness by relaxation, and attention to the physical health. Diversion, amusement and fun might be an excellent prescription, working along lines of least resistance.

A child born on this day may be indisposed to tackle the unpromising and frustrating conditions of life. Attention to physical energies could change its viewpoint, give a boost to its ego and modify its outlook of gloom.

Poison gas is the best method for the destruction of moles, one of the most troublesome of garden and lawn pests.

Walter Lippmann Speaks

Holy Land Peace Feasible

Without counting any chickens that are not yet hatched, it is now clear that organized warfare can be stopped in Palestine by the United States and Great Britain acting jointly for the United Nations. The military and diplomatic developments since the British mandate ended on May 15 have shown beyond any reasonable doubt that the only forces capable of fighting a serious war in Palestine are the Haganah and Abdullah's legion.

To achieve an armistice and then peace in Palestine is a matter primarily of imposing an armistice and negotiating a treaty between Trans-Jordan and Israel.

The crux of the problem has been to induce Mr. Bevin to use his influence in Trans-Jordan to bring about an armistice and a treaty of peace. There are good grounds for hoping that not only American diplomacy in London but even more than that the pressure of influential British opinion have been persuasive. The scandal of a British satellite army defying the United Nations had to be ended, and we may be confident that it has been.

There is now in sight the main outline of an honorable settlement which will fit the vital interests of all concerned: Namely, the expansion of Abdullah's kingdom up to the partition line, except for the international enclave of Jerusalem; a treaty of peace and alliance between the enlarged Trans-Jordan and the state of Israel; and then a confederation with economic union between them.

This would bring into existence a middle eastern commonwealth which would be under the joint protection of Great Britain and the United States. Instead of Britain and America being divided over Zionism and Pan-Arabism they would be brought together in the common task of establishing security and promoting prosperity of the Middle East.

OFFERS NO THREAT

The development of this mixed confederation would not threaten any other Arab state. It would not threaten Egypt—how could it?

In the public controversy which has grown up around British and American policy in Palestine, the argument has often degenerated into charges that the American attitude is determined by the Jewish vote and the British attitude by imperialism and oil.

It would be well to stop these recriminations and to recognize that the real question underlying all the others is whether the vital interests of Britain, America, and the western world in the Middle East can be safeguarded by a policy founded on the Arab league.

The political condition of the Middle East is much too primitive for the formation in this generation of a peaceable confederation of Arab states, and therefore a policy which rests on the assumption that such a confederation exists, or is about to exist, can lead only to frustration, disappointment, miscalculation and perhaps disaster.

Three Mighty Important Ideas

Maybe you read, where a great encyclopedia has sorted all basic ideas into a few select groups Under the letter "T" they have

Temperance - Truth - Tyranny

Sounds like a funny combination And to philosophize a little, notice that Truth is in the center—between Tyranny and Temperance.

Now and then you hear folks criticize temperate people who enjoy a moderate glass of beer .. who talk about "two beers" getting some one into trouble, and claim "There ought to be a law!"

Then Truth steps in between, and points out that two beers never got anybody into trouble—and that somebody's trying to distort the facts. No, there shouldn't be a law—there should be Truth.

From where I sit, those ideas are arranged just right. Temperance on one side, Tyranny on the other—and Truth in the middle—seeing that Tyranny never encroaches upon Temperance.

Letters Show Comments Made By Guru to His Disciple, Horch

WASHINGTON—In reading the material presented here today bear in mind:

1.—That Nicholas Roerich, who wrote these letters from Asia to Louis L. Horch, his chief disciple, in New York, was engaged in a political mission disguised as an innocent botanical quest.

2.—That Henry A. Wallace, who stealthily sent Roerich on this trip, bypassing the state department which would have refused to give him American credentials, was a great friend of Horch. He trusted Horch so greatly that he continued to give him positions of trust in the department of agriculture and the department of commerce long after he and Horch had quarreled with Roerich.

3—That while Horch plainly was a party to the hidden, political mission in Asia, and was exploiting Wallace's official position as a member of the Roosevelt cabinet, Wallace himself apparently believed that Roerich had no purpose but to collect grass seed.

He, too, may have been in on the political plot, but my study of the material leaves me in doubt.

★

The following are excerpts from letters written by Roerich to Horch, who has testified that, at the time, he and others believed that Roerich was a divine person:

"May 23, 1934:

"Let Morris act strongly in the museum committee. (I expect to identify 'Morris' positively later. There was deeply implicated in this circle at the time a new dealer of that name who had strong influence at the White House. W. P.) On the 24th we leave for Kioto, Nara and at once cross over to Korea and further. . . . It is strange that we have no cable about departure of MacMillan. (One of the American botanists whom Wallace made subordinate to the Russian Guru. W. P.) Tell the friend that personally to us is everywhere excellent attitude. (Roerich frequently referred to Henry Wallace as 'the friend.' W. P.) . . . As usual only the American ambassador (Joseph E. Grew) did harm! He refused to transmit to the palace our book while the palace wanted already to have it. . . ."

The guru wanted to give the Japanese emperor a copy of a book of his and hang around his neck the insignia of his society, first class. But Grew knew that the emperor did not accept knick-knacks from mere mortals. He knew, furthermore, that Roerich was trying to ballyhoo his cult by the publicity which such presentations would arouse.

The guru now listed luncheons and receptions for him by the minister of war, minister and vice-minister of foreign affairs and minister of education, and boasted that his party had not to pay any duty nor even submit to customs inspection.

They got free railroad tickets, too, Roerich was so proud of all this that he asked Horch to see that "the friend" heard all about it.

★

In a leter dated May 25, Roerich said "send the book, Himalaya, and one banner of peace to Tokyo. Certainly we will not touch the State Dept. You yourselves understand. If also savad. Will demand to send it through the State Dept. It is best to drop the entire thing. You may dispatch to Kioto by direct boat in the name of the mayor the 17,000 paintings with the list. Morris knows. (That subtle, but powerful new dealer again? W. P.) It is curious that the American ambassador knew of friendship for us of our friend. (Wallace, W. P.)"

Shaw Quit Job As Drama Critic To Become Leading Playwright

THINGS I NEVER KNEW 'TIL NOW ABOUT SHAW—Max Beerbohm replaced GBS as critic for the Saturday Review when Shaw could stand no more of the theater. In his valedictory he wrote: "I can never justify to myself the spending of four years on dramatic criticism. I have sworn an oath to endure no more of it. Never again will I cross the threshold of a theater."

Then he proceeded to become the world's greatest playwright.

★

His first play, "Widower's House," had its first two acts written seven years before its third.

★

The opening night of "Widower's House" (which has to do with slum housing) drew catcalls and bravos. The audience gave the author a mixed ovation, mingling hissing and shouts of approval. Shaw's curtain speech asked the critics to distinguish between the author and the actors, who were merely doing his bidding. The entire audience cheered his manful speech.

★

When he began writing music criticisms, he selected Corno di Bassetto as his pseudonym. It is the name for an ancient instrument giving forth melancholy sounds, suitable for funerals.

His criticisms caused Covent Garden to refuse him passes.

The part considered most autobiographical in his 35 plays is that of John Tanner in "Man and Superman." Granville Barker, who created the part in England, made up in a red beard to resemble the youthful Shaw. (He was then in his 40s.)

★

He left school at 15 to become a clerk in a Dublin land agency. He contends to this day that school only served to interrupt his real education. In his 70s he gave a generous contribution to the Govenesses' Benevolent Institution in honor of Miss Caroline Hill, who helped raise him as a child.

★

Shaw still detests teaching methods, and recently wrote the London Times castigating pedagogues for loading their charges with burdensome homework. When asked to permit a scene from "Saint Joan" to be published in a textbook, he replied: "NO. I lay my eternal curse on whomsover shall now or at any time hereafter make school-books of my works and make me hated as Shakespeare is hated. My plays were not designed as instruments of torture. All the schools that lust after them get this answer, and will never get any other from G. Bernard Shaw."

★

When he was 20 he deserted his native Dublin for London. He wrote: "I showed my own appreciation of my native land in the usual Irish way by getting out of it as soon as I possibly could."

Police Plan Auto Check For Safety

Cars to Be Stopped For Inspection

The Mansfield police department will assist the Ohio Chiefs of Police association and the state highway patrol in the annual state-wide motor vehicle check beginning July 1, Police Chief Jesse J. Schwab said today.

The chief said that from July 1 to 31 patrolmen will stop vehicles and check them for brakes, lights, horns, windshield wipers and stop lights.

Authorities plan to issue a windshield sticker for each auto that passes inspection so that it may be driven over the state's highways without being stopped.

Vehicles failing to pass the tests will be checked-sheeted to show faults which must be repaired before an O. K. sticker may be placed on the windshield.

Chief Schwab said that he and Traffic Commissioner Frend C. Boals will attend a meeting at the state highway patrol barracks in Massillon Tuesday at which time the necessary equipment and final instructions will be given out.

Commissioner Boals said that on various days throughout July, the patrolmen will be assigned at busy intersections and will stop all cars that do not carry O. K. stickers and inspect them for safety.

He said Miss Gloria Beveridge, who graduates next week from Bowling Green State university, has been named to the post of supervisor of arts and crafts.

At the same time Kamen said that he will hold competitive examinations for girl playground leaders for the city's parks on June 14 at 10 a. m. at Prospect park.

"So many girls applied for the nine vacancies, that I'm going to give this examination on the subject of the theory and practice of playground management," Kamen said.

Miss Beveridge will be in charge of all the girl playground leaders and LaRue will be in charge of the men

Gensel Talks On Puerto Rico

Rev. John G. Gensel, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, addressed Optimist club members at their regular noon luncheon meeting Wednesday on Puerto Rico "The Island of Contrast."

"We should stop thinking of Puerto Rico as a foreign country or of the people as foreigners," Rev. Gensel asserted. "Actually, the Puerto Ricans have been Americans since 1917.

"After Hawaii and Alaska become the 49th and 50th states of America, respectively, Puerto Rico will be the 51st state," he predicted.

Optimist club president Thomas E. Schacher presided at the meeting in the Mansfield-Leland hotel. Charles Riggle and Lester Dye served as program chairmen.

FPC Approves Gas Program

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Ohio Fuel Gas company held the authority today to increase its natural gas transmission capacity for the Marion and Lima, O., markets.

Authority was granted yesterday by the Federal Power Commission, which estimated cost at $2,986,250. Ohio Fuel Gas, however, said the actual cost might be cut by salvage of replaced pineline.

The expansion would be financed by sale of securities to Columbia Gas and Electric corporation, which owns a controlling interest in Ohio Fuel.

250 Expected At 4-H Picnic

More than 250 4-H club advisors and officers of 55 Richland county clubs are expected to attend the annual conference and picnic Saturday.

The program will begin with group discussions at 10 a. m. in Central Methodist church and will be followed by a picnic and recreation period at South park during the afternoon.

Harroun Rites Set

Private grave-side services will be held Tuesday in Oberlin for Herbert Harroun, 78, former Mansfielder, who died Monday night at the Allen Memorial hospital, Oberlin, after a long illness. The body was cremated.

A native of Mansfield, he left here at an early age and spent most of his life in Oberlin. He was graduated from Oberlin college in 1894. After further education in Boston, London and Berlin he returned to Oberlin to begin teaching in 1902. He was professor of singing in Oberlin Conservatory for 33 years and retired in 1935.

'LEGAL' PROTEST

Gretchel Gehl, municipal court employe, has delivered to council the only notarized petition opposing "fast time." It seems that someone told her that the petition was not valid unless it was notarized, so taking him seriously she went through the process of making her petition with 17 names, the "most legal" one to be submitted.

SLUMBER DISTURBERS—

If the locomotive whistles and diesel horns have disturbed your slumbers during the past 10 days, blame it on the dry weather. A high pressure area which has remained over northern Ohio for several days has enveloped the area in clear, dry air which is a good conductor of sound. At the same time, winds have remained in the north or northwest, carrying sound from the railroads towards the western and southern sections of the city.

Chatter . . . .

Maurice W. Taylor general secretary of the Mansfield YMCA, attending the first annual meeting of the Veterans West Park Home Owners corporation in Hamilton, Taylor, formerly of Hamilton, will attend the grand opening of the first of 127 veteran homes under the West Park group.

★

County Commissioner C. L. Shoup in Cleveland today to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, A. M. Rosenberry.

★

The name of Earl Charles, a Mansfield hero of Bataan, being unintentionally omitted from the list of Richland county war dead published recently in The News-Journal.

★

Harold Stranski completing a two-week service training period at the Johnson Outboard Motor company. He will be associated with the Yuncker's Sports store in the motor repair department.

★

James F. Ehalt, 171 West Second street, and John A. Parker, 511 Edgewood road, among the 900 seniors to be graduated at Notre Dame university Saturday. It will be the 103rd commencement for Notre Dame and exercises will be held in the Drill hall on the campus.

Amount Under '48 Figure

Fire, Sewer Boosts OK'd

City departments that receive their revenue from local taxes want $661,096 for operations in 1949.

The request is $10,922 less than has already been appropriated for operations of the same departments this year. The tentative budget request was approved last night by city council's finance committee.

The fire department request was upped $25,000 to 169,300. The increase was earmarked for the No. 4 fire station. That fund now totals $50,000.

The park department request was raised $3,000 to $71,300. The additional money is to be put into a fund for the eventual construction of a new swimming pool in the city.

The storm sewer department request was increased by $15,000 to $112,000. The money is to be used for new storm sewers. The budget sets up $100,000 for storm sewer construction.

GOES TO COUNCIL

The revised budget will be presented to council at its July meeting and then sent to the county budget commission which will study it, revise it, (if necessary), and return it to the city.

While the budget stipulates where each dollar will be spent, the budget commission approves the total amount which can be used as the city sees fit when it draws up its appropriation bill in 1949.

The present tax rate is at its legal limit (10 mills by state law) so tax rates can't be raised to meet increased expense. Mansfielders pay 20 mills, 10 having been voted by the people.

Contract Let For Bridge

The Purdy Construction company has been awarded a contract to build a bridge on the Gass road, just south of the Lexington-Alta road for $25,544, the city board of control announced today.

The bid of the Roger Au company to relocate 1,182 feet of the road was rejected because it exceeded the estimate by $4,105. Au's bid of $8,636 was the sole offer.

Purdy's bid was the lowest of four. Others were received from the John H. Murnane company, Cleveland; Wade Stevens, Galion, and the Richland Construction company, Mansfield.

The road relocation and new bridge construction were made necessary by the rerouting of a stream close to the intersection of the Gass and Lexington-Alta roads to make way for the Clear Fork high-lift pumping station now under construction.

33 Jobs Open In Air Guard

Thirty-three full-time jobs with pay ranging from $2,100 to $4,900, in addition to regular Air National Guard pay, are now open in the 164th Fighter Squadron, ANG, it was announced today by Col. Michael Gordon.

The full-time posts will be permanent positions in connection with the new million dollar installation at Mansfield airport.

The jobs include an aircraft maintenance officer, a fighter operations officer, and a number of inspectors and crew chiefs.

To obtain the jobs, applicants must be regular members of the Air National Guard. Enlistments are now being taken at room 200 Farmers Bank building from 9 a. m. until 8 p. m. daily.

Mansfield Red Cross Funds Aid Oregon Flood Victims

At least part of the money Mansfielders gave in the annual Red Cross campaign here this spring are now aiding victims of the Oregon flood, Mrs. Bess Augsburger, executive secretary of the local chapter, reported today.

"Already, the national Red Cross has contributed $1,000,000 toward relief and rehabilitation in Oregon, Idaho and Washington, Mrs. Augsburger said.

"So far 16 shelters have been set up for the care of flood victims. So far 61 Red Cross workers have been sent from national headquarters to the flooded areas and others will be allocated there from time to time."

In the flooded areas, according to the report received by the chapter here, 8,390 homes have been either damaged or destroyed. It will be the part of the Red Cross to aid in getting those homes rebuilt or repaired.

As in all chapters, 33 per cent of campaign funds here were sent on to national headquarters for just such emergencies, Mrs. Augsberger explained.

Blackwell Defeats New York Giants

WEIGHT AND SEE—Heavy Champ Joe Louis refutes rumors he's too much overweight by stepping on the scales at his Pompton Lakes, N. J., training camp and registering 216 pounds. Joe meets Jersey Joe Walcott in New York June 23.

Cards End 6 Tilt Loss Streak, 4-1

By BEN PHLEGAR
(AP Sports Writer)

The Cincinnati Reds have come up with a lot of bad news for the seven other National league clubs. Ewell Blackwell's back in form.

The stringbean righthander, sidelined for a month with a sore shoulder, last night won his first game since April 23. He held the slugging New York Giants to two hits and a pair of runs in seven innings. Nine Giants went down on strikes, although Mickey Livingston blasted a bases-empty home run for the New Yorkers in the fifth.

Blackwell, who walked six, retired after the seventh and the Reds quelled a ninth inning rally to win, 6-4. Blackwell retired after he complained he was having difficulty breathing as the result of a heavy head cold.

GO INTO SIXTH

The victory moved Cincinnati into sixth place in the National league, only four and a half games back of the leading Giants.

The loss cut the Giants' first place margin to a half-game over the St. Louis Cardials, who broke a six-game losing streak. The Red Birds triped Brooklyn, 4 to 1, in Sportsmans park behind the brilliant four-hit pitching of Harry "The Cat" Brecheen.

The Pittsburgh Pirates pulled to within a game of the top by outlasting Boston, 5 to 3. The Braves picked up a run in the eighth, scored another and had the bases loaded with none out in the ninth when Elmer Singleton came to Kirby Higbe's rescue.

Young Richie Ashburn, whose powerful spring hitting boosted him from the Class A Eastern league to the Philadelphia Phils, connected safely in his 20th consecutive game as the Phils downed Chicago, 4 to 3. Ashburn, the league's fourth hitter, smashed two singles and a double.

TIGERS TRIM YANKS

In the American league, Detroit spurted for four runs in the 11th inning to defeat New York 6 to 2 and Boston turned back St. Louis, 3 to 2. Cleveland at Washington and Chicago at Philadelphia were rained out.

Hal Newhouser held the Yanks to six hits in winning his fourth straight game. Hoot Evers and Vic Wertz homered for Detroit, while Joe DiMaggio accounted for both New York tallies with a single and a long fly.

Jack Kramer tumbled his former St. Louis mates out of first division with his eight hitter. Whitey Platt, rookie Brownie left fielder, homered with one aboard for the St. Louis runs in the seventh inning.

Gorman-Rupp Plays Orrville 9 Tonight

Mansfield Gorman-Rupp meets its second opponent from the Ohio Inter-City softball league tonight when the Orrville Bronze Highlanders invade the G-R park at 8:30.

Although they usually rate near the top of the Ohio loop, Orrville has been able to win only one of three league games this season. The Highlanders won a 1-to-0 decision over Massillon Carver Cigars as Dan Markley turned in a three-hit mound effort. The Cigars won the Ohio league championship in 1947.

Nick Weber's Gorman-Rupp combine had beaten the Wooster Lumbers of the Ohio league here earlier in the season, 7 to 4. The Wooster club fell before Carver Cigars, 7 to 6.

WINS FIVE OF SIX

The G-R aggregation has won five of six games this season and leads the North Central Ohio Inter-City league with two straight victories. The only defeat was at the hands of the Ashland Indians in an exhibition game.

Ashland is one of the favorites to cop the 1948 NCO title. Dale McKinley will probably get the starting mound call for G-R with Tic Hamilton behind the platter.

In addition to Markley, the Highlanders can throw Earl White or Graydon Landon at the Mansfield team. White was with Orrville last season, while Landon starred in Wooster softball circles. Landon pitched against the East Cleveland Favorite Knits Tuesday and allowed seven hits in seven innings. He lost 5 to 4.

Ashland can tie for the NCO league lead tonight when it invades the Tiffin Routh Packers. The Indians are only a half-game back of Gorman-Rupp.

In the other league game tonight, Marion Smitty's Grill plays at Mt. Vernon Stone's Grill. The G-R softballers defeated Marion Wednesday, 3 to 0.

Black Tarquin Likes the Mud

EPSOM, England—(AP)—American chances of a Derby win at Epsom tomorrow rose steadily as windy showers and slow footing were predicted for the 169th running of the British flat racing classic.

The chief American hope in the 33-horse event, New York Banker William Woodward's Black Tarquin, likes the going heavy and should have an edge on tough opposition if the bad weather prevails.

The other American-bred colt, Senator 2nd is in peak shape for the mile and a half tetst for three-year olds. He has a mile and a quarter win under his belt this season.

'Weaker' Sex Tops Bowling

Either the "weaker" sex has taken over the bowling game or else a group of Mansfield men are trying to work themselves into the good graces of the womenfolk.

The ladies outscored their male partners in nine of the 17 doubles teams rolling in the mixed league at the Colony alleys last night.

The men did have the upper hand in one department. Cliff Forsythe fired a 166-182-215—563 for the best series of the night while Mary Dintaman led the women with 182-139-174—495. Mary and Bill Dintaman posted the high team score as Bill shot 188-122-176—486 to give them a 981 total.

The whole city is taking down its civic hair in preparing to honor ambling Alex Groza, star basketball center at the University of Kentucky for the last two years.

Back in his high school days, in Alex' junior and senior year, Martins Ferry won 50 of 52 contests and in his senior year Alex scored 628 points, an all-time class A high school scoring mark.

For these and subsequent achievements, Mayor Charles H. Yoho has proclaimed Thursday, June 10, Groza day. Community organizations are cooperating with the local Booster club in planning a testimonial banquet and city-wide decorations.

Last season, Alex was named outstanding player in the national collegiate athletic association tourney in Madison Square Garden. Kentucky won the tournament.

Unraveling Joe Louis Mystery

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (AP)—The major mystery of the sports world today, concerned the future future of Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis with an "is he is or is he ain't gonna fight anymore" plot which would baffle the FBI for five full seconds.

Louis still doesn't need a cane to navigate even though he is regarded as a washed up "old man" at 34. That theory may spring from the seeming senility of his actions, for Louis is having more trouble making up his mind than a woman in a hat shop.

Dec. 5—Louis, angry with himself after a poor showing as he defended the title by a split decision from Jersey Joe Walcott, announced that he would fight "just one more time."

Feb. 18 — "Porkchops" Louis, sporting a brand new chin underneath the two others, sailed for London to give exhibitions. He reiterated that he would fight "only once more" and indicated he would enter politics. Jowly Joe added that if Walcott didn't knuckle down to his terms he would fight Gus Lesnevich.

April 12 Louis, only his third chin suffering from malnutrition after all those exhibitions, returned from Europe and said he thought he'd only fight once more.

April 13 One day before the scheduled signing for the second Louis-Walcott embroglio, negotiations almost broke down. The Louis camp was demanding a clause providing for a return match within 90 days. This despite Joe's steady raving about this being "the last."

April 14—The official signing before the New York boxing commission was delayed an hour while the Louis and Walcott boards of strategy haggled about that return match clause. Finally contracts were signed—with the "return bout" clause included.

April 16 — A languid Louis opened preliminary training at Bloomingdale, Mich., still insisting that this would be his "final bout."

May 18—Louis started serious training at Pompton Lakes, N. J. Well-padded and phlegmatic, Joe told questioners: "I said it before and I'll say it again, this is my last fight."

June 2—Pared down to something resembling the Brown Bomber of old, Louis was in high spirits and feeling "better than at any time since I've come out of the army."

"As a matter of fact," he said, "this may not be my last fight."

Which brings you right up to date and eliminates the necessity of calling in the G-Men, or even anybody who can see through a polished plate glass window.

Louis has earned $3,115,600 with his fists since 1934. That's more than the usual requirement for retirement. But Joe has been cut up through the years in more pieces than a hash house pie. There were some bad investments, too. So most of it is gone.

And so, my dear Watson, is he is or is he ain't gonna fight anymore?

He is!

Indians May Have Trade on Fire With Detroit

Hegan, Berardino Prominent In Talks

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Cleveland Indians may have another trade on the fire.

The rumor ran rampant in the wigwam today after it was learned President Bill Veeck had huddled this week with Billy Evans, general manager of the Detroit Tigers.

Who the Tigers are interested in was a popular topic of speculation. The names of Infielder Johnny Berardino and Catcher Jim Hegan were prominently mentioned, although it is believed Veeck would decline an offer both for his utility infielder and his first string receiver.

Veeck long has been known to be in search for another starting pitcher. He turned down an offer for Paul (Dizzy) Trout, the Tigers' bespectacled right-hander, last spring, probably because of Trout's poor performance in 1947, but with Trout's return to form Veeck may again be interested.

★

CLEVELAND —(INS)— Another phase in the rollicking baseball saga of James Patrick Seerey, burly ex-Cleveland Indians' outfielder, is at an end.

The rock-jawed Irishman is on his way down, and perhaps out of the American league, which he was expected to set afire with his mighty home run bat.

The year 1948 was heralded by most observers as the season that would mark either the end of the line for Seerey or a major milestone in what might have been one of the most fabulous careers in baseball history.

Seerey was traded to Chicago White Sox yesterday along with Al Gettel after five years with the Indians in the big-time. The Tribe received Outfielder-Infielder Bob Kennedy in return.

Although the departure of the colorful Seerey from the Cleveland scene will create the most obvious change, the trading of Gettel may more effect the Tribe's pennant bid.

Obtained from the Yanks last year, Gettel started late in June to hit his stride. After he got going, he compiled a respectable 11-10 record.

As for Seerey, he too long has threatened to become one of the truly great sluggers of all-time. His strikeout total, however, has always overshadowed his run producing ability.

Pat's biggest year was 1946 when he pounded 26 homers, tying a record for right-handed Indians, and drove in 62 runs. He led the league in strikeouts also, however, with 101.

Last year the Indians' strong man compiled a very cool .171 average, despite pre-season special tutoring by Rogers Hornsby. Pat really hadn't been doing bad this year, with a batting average of .262 for 10 games. Kennedy is batting just 248

Kennedy may be third-base insurance or part of a three cornered trade involving a third major league team, but there has been no indication of that eventuality as yet.

Nevertheless, Pat Seerey is gone perhaps to greener pastures, perhaps to baseball oblivion

It looks as if Cleveland fans will have to pick out another "goat" to boo from now on.

NEW PHIL FLINGER — Hugh Radcliffe, the 19-year old school boy who struck out 28 men in a nine-inning game became the major league's latest bonus rookie yesterday when he signed a $40,000 Philadelphia Phil contract. Radcliffe's catcher dropped the ball in the 27th strikeout of his high school game and Radcliffe fanned the 28th man. (International)

Sportsmanship Most Important

By BILL CORUM

NEW YORK —(INS)— All over this country, and pretty much all over the world, today, young men are engaged in training and tryouts for the Olympic games. The big week of the XIVth Olympiad will be the track and field games to be held in London in July.

The best guess is that our athletes from the U. S. will win the majority of these events, because they are the best, best fed and best coached athletes in the world. With exceptions in certain events, naturally.

But how the Americans walk and talk among the English and the folks of other competing nations in London may be far more important than how they run and jump there

Boiled down, it is his idea that we can't be too careful about staying out of "rhybarbs" of any kind during the games over there.

This is the question:

If we can't play together in a spirit of sportsmanship and friendship, how can we expect to live together in such a spirit?

Some months ago Bob Considine was heading up a sports committee that was trying to work out a plan for this nation, and others with an abundance of food, to feed all the athletes who will assemble in London for the Olympics A good idea from the standpoint of sportsmanship. How good from the standpoint of good will might be open to question.

However, more important than an extra knife and fork with our Kansas City steaks, an extra fork with our Boston beans, or an extra jug of molasses with our Georgia grits, will be the manner in which we sit down to eat 'em with our friendly rivals

Those Olympic games are sports and it would be a terrible thing if we failed to behave in the tradition of good sportsmanship. We all must remember what a spectacle and clown Hitler made of himself during the Olympic games in Berlin

Nearby Reservoir Listed Good for Week End Fishing

COLUMBUS —(UP)— Four Ohio lakes promise good fishing—mostly for bluegills and crappies—on the basis of reports this week to the state conservation department.

The list of choice spots for anglers increased sharply over the previous week when only two lakes reported food fishing.

Labeled "good" were Seneca lake, the north reservoir near Akron, Pleasant Hill reservoir south of Mansfield, and Indian lake near Bellefontaine.

North reservoir led the list of fishermen's paradises with an average catch of 2.9 fish per hour. Sixty-nine per cent of the catch was bluegills, 18 per cent crappies, five per cent perch, two per cent bass and three per cent miscellaneous.

At Seneca lake the catch was 1.74 fish per hour with 78 per cent crappies and 17 per cent bluegills. Pleasant Hill reported a catch of 1.07 fish per hour with 70 per cent crappies while Indian lake reported 1.33 fish per hour with 70.14 per cent crappies.

Piles Are Never "Mild"

DANGER IN NEGLECT

Although they may seem a "mild" ailment, especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formation without tendency to heal themselves; instead, they are likely, if neglected to keep increasing in size, involving more and more of the rectal area.

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting, predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as: indigestion, billiousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, pain in back and down the legs, secondary anemia with its run-down tired feeling, and general nervous irritability.

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief—written guarantee. My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs, and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties.

Why not call and learn of this method? The examination is free.

OHIO STATE'S spring sport teams have won 42 of 67 contests. . . . Only two baseball tilts remain on the slate. . . . The junior varsity baseball team had the best record, 10 wins and one defeat. . . . Pete Perini, Buck mound ace, has won eight and lost two. . . . He has won six straight and allowed only four earned runs in six Big Nine league games. . . . Pete pitched against Illinois, 1947 champs and co-champs this year, once last season and once this. . . . He gave the Illini only seven hits and no runs in 18 innings. . . . Speaking of earned run work, what about Lefty Gene Bearden of Cleveland? . . . Gene has won four of five starts with the Tribe, losing only a 2-to-0 decision to Washington. . . . He's allowed only six earned runs, a mark of 1.24 per nine inning game. . . . That's just about tops for the American league. . . . Lloyd Duff, Ohio State track captain, has proven the best Buck point-getter since Jesse Owens. . . . Duff annexed 148.6 points this year at State won the indoor and outdoor Big Nine titles. . . . He holds all-time Buck records in the pole vaule and 120-yard high hurdles. . . . He also runs the low sticks and broad jumps.

The sale list includes: 800,000 hot dogs, 70,000 bags of peanuts, 1,000 gallons of ice cream and 740,000 soft drinks. . . . Akron's Ascot park, which opens tomorrow, has all its 512 stalls filled with gee-gees and even plans to bunk some bangtails at Randall park in Cleveland.

JIMMY THOMSON, who hits a golf ball a country mile, recalls the time he was giving a driving exhibition and received a great buildup. . . . "After that introduction I went to the first tee determined to wham thhe ball at least 375 yards just to show them it was gospel," he grins. "So I dribbled the ball about 30 yards off the tee!" . . . But Jimmy could belt them pretty well. . . . On a sunbaked fairway at Iola, Kans., with a stiff favoring wind, he whaled one which was six paces short of the green. . . . The hole was 480 yards! !

3 Church Clubs Win 2nd Tilts

St. Matthew's, Park Avenue Baptist and First Congregational were tied for the leadership of the Church softball league after each won its second game of the season yesterday.

Park Avenue Baptist defeated First Methodist, which had won its opening game, 4-0, at Tappan field in the best game of the day. Walters pitched three-hit ball for the Baptists while Lisle allowed the winners only four safeties. The game was 1-0 until Park Avenue sewed it up with three runs in the top of the seventh inning.

First Congregational walloped St. Paul's Lutheran, 19-3, while St. Matthews massacred United Bethren, 28-1.

The First Lutheran team also remained undefeated as it won its first game, 14-3, over B-nai Brith. In the other game First Presbyterian defeated St. Lukes 7-5.

Rugged Competition Set In AAU Track

DAYTON—(AP)—A record field and some top-hat competition shaped up today for the district Amateur Athletic Union track and field meet here June 12.

Already 11 universities, 17 high schools and five amateur groups have entered athletes and officials estimated 300 men and boys would line up for the district trials by starting time.

Three heated rivalries will highlight the extensive program, with the most attention centered on the high hurdles battle between Baldwin Wallace's Harrison Dillard and the Dayton Athletic club's Ed Dugger.

But the going is liable to be just as rough in the quarter-mile, where Lancaster's schoolboy sensation Gene Cole will tangle with Gunther Katzmar of Baldwin Wallace and Gene Blackburn of Ohio Wesleyan.

Another torrid tussle is likely to develop in the mile run among Quentin Breisford of Ohio Wesleyan, Bruce Thompson of Miami and another schoolboy, Frank Kilgore of Dayton Dunbar.

GENERAL FAVORITE

Dillard is a general favorite to keep his string of victories intact when he meets Dugger over the high hurdles. Dillard turned in an unofficial world record of 13.6 seconds in the Kansas relays this year, and has been down to 14 flat consistently without pressure.

Universities which have entered teams or parts of teams include Baldwin Wallace, Bowling Green, Ohio Wesleyan, Capital, Heidelberg, University of Dayton, Xavier university, Wittenberg college, Miami university, and a group of Ohioans from Notre Dame.

Among the high schools are Cincinnati Vocational, Lima Central, Columbus East, Columbus University school, Lancaster, Cleveland Central, Greenville, Dayton Wilbur Wright, Springfield, Hamilton, Dayton Dunbar, Akron East, West Carrollton, Dayton Fairview, Dayton Roosevelt, Osborn Bath, Oxford Stewart, Columbus Central.

Other groups of performers will come from Cleveland Athletic club, Wright-Patterson Field, Springfield and Columbus.

The meet will be held at the University of Dayton stadium.

B-W Favored To Win Ohio Track Meet

DELAWARE—(INS)—The flying feet of Harrison Dillard today made Baldwin-Wallace a heavy favorite to walk off with the fifth annual all-Ohio track title.

Dillard, entered in the high and low hurdles and the 100-yard dash, will be seeking to run his consecutive victory string to 76 in tomorrow's meet at Delaware.

The combination of Dillard, Gunther Katzmar and other B-W cohorts seemed sufficient to overwhelm another strong contender, Miami.

Baldwin-Wallace won the Ohio conference championship last week end, while Miami romped to the mid-American conference title.

All important darkhorse is Bowling Green, which competed in neither conference meet. The Falcons are undefeated in dual competition this season.

Billiards Go Into Tie for League Lead

Ideal Billiards moved into a tie with Blue Goose Tavern for the lead in the News-Journal A golf league by-scoring five points yesterday in a match with Myers Supply.

All eight league teams are now within three points of the league lead. The standings follow: Ideal 9, Blue Goose 9, Orr 8, Flexible Conveyor 7, Myers 7, Penn Auto 7, Smokehouse 7 and PD's Bar 6.

Firms Face Legal Fight For Tax Cut

Governor Rejects Special Call Bid

COLUMBUS—(AP)—A hint that companies wanting to take advantage of the state supreme court's Roseville pottery tax decision face a legal fight came out of a conference in Gov. Thomas J. Herbert's office Thursday.

Governor Herbert made it plain to a nine-man committee that he did not expect to call a special session of the legislature to consider revision of tax laws in the light of the decision. The court held that tunnel kilns of the Roseville Pottery company were taxable as personal property, at 50 per cent of their appraised value, rather than as real estate, at 100 per cent.

C. Emory Glander, state tax commissioner, then disclosed that he was changing the rules of valuation for county auditors only to the extent of ordering them to classify tunnel kilns as personal property.

"All other cases must stand on their own feet," he said.

Glander also suggested that the problem be approached "from the other end"—getting the legislature to raise the personal property tax to a par with real estate. Members of the group admitted they had not thought of this.

Governor Herbert told them he was not "ready yet to submit the question to a special session." The next regular session starts in January, 1949.

Defendants Deny Blame In Three Damage Actions

Three answers to damage suits were filed yesterday in common pleas court.

Attorney Robert L. Ross filed an answer on behalf of Roy Eugene Shelton, 19, who has been named defendant in a suit for $25,627.

The plaintiff is Loran T. Payton, administrator of the estate of his son, Noel R. Payton, who was killed in a car accident in Ontario last Jan. 27.

In his answer, Shelton denies he was negligent and asks dismissal of the petition. The Payton youth died instantly after the car in which he was a passenger collided with one driven by Shelton.

Attorney Joseph A. Bayer represents the plaintiff.

Mansfield Rapid Transit, Inc., denied all allegations in two amended petitions seeking a total of $60,000 as a result of an accident.

One of the suits was brought on behalf of Charles Daniel Bradley by his mother, Zella I. Bradley, and charges the boys suffered injuries when the doors of a bus opened and the boy fell to the pavement Oct. 10, 1946 on Bowman street. She asks $50,000 damages.

In the other suit, the plaintiffs are Jack C. Bradley and Zella I. Bradley, the boy's parents, who ask $10,000 for medical expenses and loss of services. Bayer represents the Bradleys.
